I feel nothing
The pain is gone
With it the tears,
The sadness and the happiness

Children cry
I feel nothing

People suffer
I feel nothing

The world slowly dies
I feel nothing

My soul has been destroyed
My body left an empty shell

Obliterated by my own stupidity
But why would I want to feel
It causes so much pain to others
So I will exist without it

And feel nothing
